

Alcohol Rules Information Sheet

You have options for serving alcohol:

1. Caterer or Bartending Company provides the alcohol.

You can hire a caterer or a bartending company that has a bar package which would provide you with a bartender and alcohol. You would NOT provide any of the alcohol to the caterer/bartender. If you choose this option, you DO NOT need to get a Banquet Permit from the State of WA. You may either have an open bar or a cash bar. This is the only option you can choose if you want a cash bar. If the Caterer or Bartending Company is NOT on Events on 6th preferred list, they need to provide proof of business license and insurance.

2. You provide the alcohol.

Hire a caterer and hire their bartender, or hire a bartending company, but YOU purchase and provide the alcohol to them to serve. You DO need to get a Banquet Permit. You may NOT have a cash bar. If the Caterer or Bartending Company is NOT on Events on 6th preferred list, they need to provide proof of business license and insurance.

If these rules are broken, Events on 6th reserves the right to have the bar closed, keep the damage deposit, and /or end the event early.

Progression of dealing with alcohol issues: Three warnings to person(s) and coordinator (and confiscating alcohol), warning of bar shut down and $100 from damage deposit, bar shut down and $200 from damage deposit, party shut down and $200 from damage deposit.

Bodily fluid cleanup is taken from the damage deposit $150 per instance.
